

Dr. YANG Dong is now an assistant professor at Department of Logistics and Maritime Studies, deputy director of Shipping Research Centre, Director of International Shipping and Transport Logistics Master Program, Hong Kong Polytechnic University (PolyU). He is council member of International Associate of Maritime Economist (IAME), associate editor of International Journal of Shipping and Transport Logistics (SSCI) and Maritime Business Review (ESCI). Dr. YANG obtained his PhD majoring in maritime logistics science from Kobe University, Japan. After that, he has successively served for Southern University of Denmark, National University of Singapore, China Waterborne Transport Research Institute before he joined PolyU in 2016. He has published more than 40 papers in over 10 international academic journals including Transportation Research Part A, B, D and E, Journal of Transport Geography, Transport Reviews, Transportation Science, Transport Policy, Ocean Engineering, Maritime Policy & Management, etc. He has chaired funding from various sources, including ESCAP of United Nations, APEC, National Natural Science Foundation of China (NSFC), National Natural Science Foundation of China (NSFC)/Research Grants Council (RGC) Joint Research Scheme, Hong Kong Policy Research Fund (PPR), Hong Kong Maritime Department and etc.